

LATEST ANNOUNCEMENT

2 OCTOBER 2020

REGISTRATION OF NEW STUDENTS AND EXISTING STUDENTS SEMESTER 1 ACADEMIC SESSION 2020/2021

Universiti Malaysia Perlis (UniMAP) is very concerned with the current situation and takes seriously the increase in positive cases of COVID-19 throughout Malaysia. We would like to emphasize that the official statement issued by UniMAP dated 30 September 2020 is still applicable.

The University management with reference to the media statement from the Ministry of Higher Education on 2 October 2020 has decided to TEMPORARILY POSTPONE the physical attendance of ALL STUDENTS to the UniMAP Campus, until a new announcement is made.

- (1) All new and existing students must register and follow all courses online until further notice based on the latest COVID-19 developments from time to time.
- (2) The orientation week (i.e. MSK) for all new undergraduate students Semester 1 Academic Session 2020/2021 will be conducted fully online.
- (3) Students who have arrived on campus will be assisted for placement with adherence to the Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).
- (4) Students, with exemption to those from Red Zone locations; who have little or no internet access in their respective homes; will be considered to attend campus for the purpose of following online learning.
- (5) Students from Sabah, Sarawak or from other states who have purchased flight tickets before or on 2 October 2020 to attend campus, may contact the Centre for Student Development and Services for the next course of action.

Further and up-to-date information on any matters pertaining to the implementation of the Semester 1, Academic Session 2020/2021 online teaching and learning will be updated from time to time.

All students are reminded to always be alert to any latest announcements and adhere with the instructions in dealing with the Covid-19 pandemic.
